

A site plan diagram showing a rectangular building labeled "Tranquility House" highlighted with an orange border. The building is situated on a sloped lot, with a road or path running parallel to its long side. Dotted lines indicate property boundaries and other structures. In the foreground, two T-shaped symbols represent utility poles or markers.

Tranquility House